10. It is important as a health and weight-loss brand that our representatives are a product of the product. You may still coach or become certified if you have not yet reached these numbers, however, we want you to be progressively working towards your goals and living the TLS lifestyle. Certified TLS Coaches should maintain or progressively working to achieve these body fat percentages:

Women: 25-31% BFP.

Men: 18-25% BFP

There are many benefits to becoming a TLS Certified Coach.

It is a process of becoming an “expert in your field”. Anytime there is a “certified” in front or behind a title it gives you more credibility within your network.

Be the first to know! You will now receive email communications directly from our TLS team updating you on the TLS division direction, upcoming campaigns etc...

It builds your business, increases your retail profit, BV and helps to create new potential business partners.

It is a necessary step towards becoming a TLS trainer.
